

EXPLORE PHILOSOPHY

Soon you will experience VR (virtual reality) in the Evoluon in our VR Time Machine. You will travel through time to the distant future of our solar system. In this assignment you will work with writing or shaping an argument about how your presence in the present affects the future.

The following questions will help you think about the content of your work.

- How does the past affect you?
- Do you have an influence on the future?
- How would you like to influence the future?
- If nature could talk, what would it say?

Assignment: write an argument, song, rap or make a video about how your presence in the present has an effect on the future.

The inspirational videos and articles on the Next Nature Future Travels website can help you form your thoughts. Write, film, animate, sing or rap your work.
